  - St. Helens and All Saints Church £100 as a 'thank you' for the Christmas Tree provided by Wykeham Estate.
- To note the changes in the AGS (Annual Governance Statement) specifically, Assertion 10. To consider the advice provided by YLCA, that all councillors should have individual email accounts with a .gov suffix. The Clerk will pursue and endeavour to clarify this at forthcoming meetings, webinars, and seminars, as there is some ambiguity in the interpretation of the 'Proper Practices Guidance'. The proposal is that any new arrangements for email addresses for councillors at Snainton PC, if agreed, be put in place to be effective 1st April 2026 This was also referred to in the YLCA White Rose weekly news of 4th July
- The recent Snainton PF&VH cttee minutes said that the Clerk had 'another solution' to their Parish Council grant submission issue. The clerk has responded to the secretary and that erroneous minute should now be expunged, with the correction supplied. Councillors have had copies of the relevant words/emails etc.
